
Open Research Data and Open Science

Paolo Manghi

Paolo Manghi is a Researcher in computer science at Istituto di Scienza e Tecnologie dell'Informazione (ISTI) of Consiglio Nazionale delle Ricerche (CNR), in Pisa, Italy. He is acting as technical manager and researcher for the EU-H2020 infrastructure projects OpenAIRE2020, SoBigData.eu, PARTHENOS, RDA Europe, and EAGLE. He is active member of a number of Data Citation and Data Publishing Working groups of the Research Data Alliance; besides, he is invited member of the advisory boards of the Research Object initiative (ref. Carole Goble, University of Manchester) and of the Europeana Cloud project. Today, his research areas of interest are data e-infrastructures for science, scientific communication infrastructures, and technologies supporting open science publishing and digital scientific communication, i.e. reusing, reproducing, sharing, assessing all kinds of research artefacts, be them articles, datasets or scientific methods (e.g. software, services, algorithms, workflows).
