

Elena Giglia

Elena Giglia, PhD, Masters' Degree in Librarianship and Masters' Degree in Public Institutions Management, is Head of the Open Science Unit at the University of Turin. She was a member (2019-2020) of the Committee on Open Science at the Ministry for University and Research (MUR). She is a member of the EOSC Association Task Force Researchers Engagement and Adoption. She collaborates with the ICDI Competence center on Open Science, EOSC and FAIR data and with the editorial board of open-science.it. She has been part of the European Open Science network since many years, attending national and international conferences, and writing and lecturing on Open Access and Open Science. She takes part as invited expert in several EU Workshops on Open Access and Open Science. She coordinates the CO-OPERAS Implementation Network in GO FAIR and represents Italy in the OPERAS research infrastructure Executive Assembly. She is the OPERAS delegate within the EOSC Association since December 2020. She serves in the Scientific Committee of the international OAI-CERN workshop on Innovation in Scholarly Communication, of the national GARR conference, of the Open Science Fair 2021 and of the ELPUB conference; she is a member of the Advisory Board of Open Knowledge Maps and Qeios, and of the Horizon2020 project Polifonia. She served as one of the Italian National Open Access Desk-NOADs for OpenAIRE. She edits the web portal OA@UniTO, www.oe.unito.it.

Her family: a husband, three kids and a lovely Golden Retriever (2014-2021).

She also loves taking pictures; please feel free to reuse her CC-BY photos from Flickr.
